Otisha Barial, a Navy Veteran, began her State career with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation in 2003. While there, she had the opportunity to work in multiple environments, to include Paroles and California State Prison Sacramento. In 2007, Otisha transitioned to the Department of Justice (DOJ), where she has worked for the last 10 years. She has had the pleasure of working in multiple programs and units along the way, evolving into a subject matter expert in areas such as applicant agency authorizations and background checks, criminal history record sealings, and identity theft procedures. In 2015, Otisha was promoted to Field Representative for the Records Management Branch, acting as the Departments liaison with all criminal justice agencies throughout the state of California, as well as the Federal Bureau of Investigations, to ensure proper submission of criminal arrest and disposition information. Otisha's goal is to provide training and outreach to all criminal disposition reporting agencies, to improve the quality and integrity of criminal record information submitted to and maintained by the DOJ.
